Who we are

We are an independent media planning and buying specialist and we deliver and integrate advertising campaigns. We do this for big and small businesses and have worked with a lot of household brands.

Time up , has been engaged in the field of media advertising in the beginning of 2009 as a startup company.

Our people are experts in their fields. They know the best methods and media for our clients' advertising because they have worked for media owners before. It is this expertise which is valued so highly by our clients and qualifies our reputation as industry leaders.

Choose multiple media to advertise your business

Whether you choose online, traditional or both, you can directly purchase advertising media formats from us . We can express your brand through the most effective media channels for your business.

We explore your brand, sector and competitors and then build a campaign that will trend with purpose and strategy.

Understand all of your advertising options

From a local radio campaign, a national outdoor advertising campaign, to building and designing your website – we calculate the best standalone format, or mixture of media to achieve your brief objectives, increase business success and drive profit.
